970 THE ARIZONA LATTER-DAY SAINTS ("MORMON") TEMPLE, MESA, ARIZONA

7A-H1833

The "Mormon" Temple at Mesa, Arizona was erected by the L. D. S. Church at a cost of about $800,000.00. Its dedication was October 3, 1927. The building is Colonial in design, an American adaptation of the classic. Its dimensions are 184 feet by 129 feet, 58 feet high. Of steel and concrete construction, covered with glistening pulschrome terra cotta, in the center of five acres of beautiful lawns and flowers, surrounded by a steel fence 9 feet high. This edifice stands as a monument to the growth and stability of the "Mormon" Church.

Before its dedication, one hundred thousand tourists from all parts of the country were permitted to pass through this building.

Dear Sir:

Am sorry I do not have information on your Burling line. I did research on that line for a party who has moved to Cal. and I do not have access to it. My Lesueur's come from Seney Lake and I do not know whether the Logies are related or not. I'll hold your letter on file however. Sincerely J. M. Lesueur

A Centenarian

On the 10th inst., Mrs. Bogart, widow of the late Abraham Bogart, reached her 100th year. Mrs. Bogart was the eldest child of James Lazier, who came to the Bay of Quinte about 1790 and settled near Northport, and from whom the many families bearing that name in three or four adjacent counties are descended.

A. E. LAZIER DIED SATURDAY, DEC. 2ND 1950

Albert Edward Lazier, the last member of a well-known family of Lonsdale and Napanee, died suddenly on Saturday afternoon, December 2nd, at his home on Thoms Street. He had been apparently in his usual good health until a few minutes before his death.

Mr. Lazier, who was in his 90th year, was born at Lonsdale and was a son of James Lazier and Mary Doxsee. As a young man he was associated with his father in the operation of the Lazier Woollen Mill at Lonsdale, which was an important industry in the district, in earlier days. Its products were well known and much sought after, so much so that sixty years ago, Albert E. Lazier came to Napanee, where he opened a warehouse for the distribution of woollens. Later Mr. Lazier opened a retail store where he sold woollens and dry goods until about twenty years ago when he retired from active business.

Mr. Lazier was a man of sterling character and was held in high regard by those with whom he did business, and a wide circle of friends. A few years ago he became totally blind, but regardless of such a serious handicap, retained a lively interest in life, and kept his mind alert and keen by every possible means.

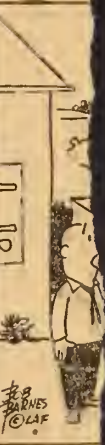

He was a member for many years of Union Lodge No. 9, A.F. and A.M. and of Trinity Church. He had never taken an active interest in town affairs but was keenly interested in the welfare of the community.

He was predeceased by one sister, Miss Josephine Lazier, who died eleven years ago, and by one brother, Malcolm, who passed away nine years ago. He is survived by his niece, Mrs. Robert Wagner and her son, Dick Wagner, of Boston.

His funeral was conducted Monday afternoon, December 4th, at his late home by Rev. Noble Hatton and interment was at Riverside Cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. H. E. Boyle, Robert Smith, F. A. Correll and C. L. Graham.

MRS. A. S. HUGHSON MADE LIFE MEMBER ANGLICAN W. A.

Mrs. A. S. Hughson was made a Life Member of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Church of England, in Canada, last Wednesday. The W. A. of St. Mary Magdalene's Church met at the home of Mrs. Ed. Vine with a large number of members present. The service of presentation was conducted by the president, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, and the gold pin was presented to Mrs. Hughson by the Rev. Mr. Scobel.

Restore the Regency-style verandah around three sides of the existing house.
 (see the one remaining on a large brick house
